A HUB THAT CONNECTS

List the three most important things a property should have, and you're likely to hear: "location, location, location." That phrase has been in use at least since 1926, according to The New York Times, and is just as relevant in 2015 as it was then.

Aayush Poomima is perched in a safe green neighborhood with immediate access to public transit and Freeways. It's a 3 mins drive from Kurla station. Commute by car is a delight with immediate access to the highway and 5 mins drive to the new Chembur freeway. You can get anywhere in a short period of time.
